

En-Gender!

EN-GENDER 2024

Day 1 (28th August)

9:15-9:30

- Welcome and Introduction

9:30-11:15

- Queering and the (a)political - Chair: Jessica Albrecht
  - India and the Politics of Breasts: Queering the Women Narrative - Suparna Roy
  - Queering Approach to Social Egg Freezing by Chinese Single Women: Their Real Needs, Legal Barriers They Face, and Potential Negative Consequences - Jingyun (Iris) Pi
  - The Impact of Non-Binary and Intersectional Identities on Political Participation and Decision-Making Processes in Post-Conflict Societies: Case of Somalia - Antonetta Lovejoy Hamandishe
  - Crisis of the civilizatory matrix or continuities of dehumanization? Facing the political of the apolitical - Magali Segovia, Marina Verdini Aguilar, Javier Pretti, Leandro Wallace

BREAK – 11:15-11:30

Note: All times shown are BST, please consider adapting it to your own time zone. Here is a good tool to help with that.

11:30-13:00

- Law and Gendered Politics - Chair: Ashley Brown

- Gender Melancholia and Legal Gender Recognition rights for children and young people in the UK - Luan Carpes Barros Cassal
- Law, War and Hegemonic Masculinity: Shaping the Ukrainian Post-Conflict Society Through the Military - Liubov Gordiienko
- Challenging the Limited Legal Protection Provided for Trans People in Britain under the Equality Act 2010 - Manisha Mathews

BREAK – 13:00-14:00

14:00-15:00

EnGendering Connections: Social Networking space

BREAK – 15:00-15:15

15:15-17:00

- Anti-queer Horrors - Chair: Leandro Wallace

- Unveiling the 'Family Values' Rhetoric: The Turkish Government's Anti-LGBTQ+ Campaign - İlayda Üstel
- Transfeminist-Plural Vanguard: The Fight Against the Anti-Gender Agenda in Brazil - Angélica Antonechen Colombo
- Horror cinema and the “monster in the closet” allegory: Pathways of escaping the “morally good queer” and embracing gender transgressions - Andy Rocha
- The Alternative Archive: Queer Indo-Guyanese Canadians’ Artistic Interventions in Indentureship Studies - Stephanie Sawah

Note: All times shown are BST, please consider adapting it to your own time zone. Here is a good tool to help with that.

Day 2 (29th August)

9:30-11:00

- Sites of Contention - Chair: Jingyun (Iris) Pi
  - A political education: external influences on gendered behaviours at Scottish universities (1560-1610) - Ashley Brown
  - Site of Oppression, Site of Liberation: The politics of psychotherapy - J Fergus Evans
  - Imaginative Encounters: Exploring Justice and Eroticism in Speculative Engagements with the Migration Regime - Hatim Rachdi

BREAK – 11:00-11:30

11:30-13:15

- Workshop “The Only Possible Relationship to the University Today is a Criminal One” (Moten & Harney 2013): Being a “Subversive Feminist Intellectual” with Professor Kiran Grewal
  - In this workshop participants will be encouraged to think through their relationship to intellectual work as a form of ethical, political and professional practice. In the process we will talk about questions of epistemic authority and violence, the praxis of politically engaged activist scholarship, the move to ‘decolonise the university’ and the implications these have for shaping our lives as academics.
  - Professor Kiran Grewal is a feminist activist and scholar with 20 years’ experience working on sexual and gender-based violence, human rights and post-conflict justice.

BREAK – 13:15-14:15

Note: All times shown are BST, please consider adapting it to your own time zone. Here is a good tool to help with that.

14:15-15:30

- Conscription to Violence - Chair: Flavio Carrera Verdesoto
  - The Impact of Gendered and Ethnicised Conscription on Ethnic Minority Women: Interview Evidence from Israel - Marketa Odlova
  - The experience of Deaf Women in Austria according to sexual violence inside in Deaf community and outside - Vanessa Schügerl
  - Transcending Blackness: The Dynamics of Choosing English Names among Black Transgender Individuals in South Africa - Thato Mokholoane

BREAK – 15:30-15:15

15:15-16:30

- Geography, Migration and Peace - Chair: Andy Rocha
  - Happy Subjects, Joyful Tactics: Neoliberalization, Embodiment, and Queer Migration - Khadija Islow
  - A Decolonial Feminist Analysis of Gender Dynamics Among the Siona and Siekopai of the Ecuadorian Amazon - Gabriela Gallardo Lastra

Note: All times shown are BST, please consider adapting it to your own time zone. Here is a good tool to help with that.

Day 3 (30th August)

10:00-11:00

EnGendering Connections: Social Networking space

BREAK – 11:00-11:15

11:15-13:00

- Power and Marginalisation - Chair: Jessica Albrecht
  - Homophilosemitism - Anat Kraslavsky
  - Respectable Rich Queers and Dangerous Poor Queers: Consumer-Nationalisms and Commodified Sexual Politics in India and South Africa - Shannon Philip
  - Only Israel loves you, traitor; between pinkwashing and LGBT+phobia in the anti-Palestinian Zionist society - Lahhat Magali
  - Protest and accountability in queer Israeli activism against the occupation - Dean Leetal

BREAK – 13:00-14:00

14:00-16:00

- Fast Round (including discussion)
  - Deconstructing Femi(ni)cide: Interrogating Structural Dynamics and Practical Implications in Italy and Mexico - Caterina Lisi, Loren Irene Sandoval Arteaga
  - “We, the people of South Africa”: How the Formation and Aftermath of the South African Constitution Led to a Turning Point of Social and Political Change in History - Narayani Shankar
  - Alliance for « Equally Liveable Lives » - Maëlle Roussel

16:00-16:15

- Closing Remarks and Thanks

